Friends Celebrate Autumn's Arrival Seaside Style at Sunset at Sandy Hook - September 28

Over 300 guests attended the 9th annual autumn fundraiser for Clean Ocean Action. Festivities included delicious fare, exciting auctions, live music by Michael Gilhool and Gerald Gates, and great music for dancing by The Thom White Band. A beaming sunset set the stage for a "sunsational" evening by the sea. The event was sponsored by High Point Auto Insurance, Meridian Health, and Shore Point Distributors.

Special thanks to live auctioneer Nick Brown, Maureen Bay of Gem of an Idea in Fair Haven, Guaranteed Plants and Florist in Locust, Tom Levy and students from The Culinary Education Center, a collaborative effort between Brookdale Community College & Monmouth County Vocational School, volunteers from the Rumson Fair Haven Regional High School Environmental Club, and the many people who donated their time, talents, and gifts for the ocean.
